

EUROVELO AND CYCLE TOURISM
CONFERENCE 2018
LIMBURG BELGIUM, 26 - 28 SEPTEMBER
EXPERIENCE THE UNIQUE

Adam Bodor

Ádám Bodor is currently the Advocacy and EuroVelo director of the European Cyclists` Federation. He holds master degrees in geography and economics and has worked previously as the managing director of an industrial park, as project manager at the Budapest University of Technology and Economics and as independent consultant on EU Funds.

His cycling carrier started as board member of ECF in 2004 and he was the first “ministerial commissioner responsible for cycling” and the co-chair of the inter-ministerial working group for cycling in Hungary form 2005 to 2010. He coordinated the preparation and implementation of the first national cycling strategy of Hungary for the 2007-2013 period. This strategy served as a basis to allocate 180 million Euros to construct 2000 km of new cycling infrastructure, to implement the first national standard and the GIS based monitoring system of cycling infrastructure, to introduce a more cycling friendly highway code, to start cycle trainings for kids, to organize a bike to work campaign and to create more cycling friendly cities.

Since working for ECF Ádám reorganized the management of EuroVelo and achieved its first recognition by the European institutions. Since 2016 he has been coordinating the advocacy work of ECF and the preparation of the EU cycling strategy. [\[Source\]](#)

Ádám will give a presentation titled “The Future of Cycle Tourism in Europe” the second afternoon plenary session (16:15-17:15).
